ESF Monitoring -Youth Employment Initiative (YEI) - Is the re-entry of participants treated in the same way in the YEI and in the YG monitoring?

No. In YG monitoring each start is counted, irrespective of the number of times the same participant has been through the service phase. For YEI monitoring (as with the general ESF monitoring) individuals are counted only once per operation (by updating their existing participation record on re-entry).

View PDF