Can a measure that provides support for individuals that subsequently find employment in an SME be considered as supporting the SME?

No. The support is provided to the individual and not to the SME.

View PDF