Which date is the start date of an intervention: the date of registration with the labour exchange (or any other institution if it’s foreseen), or the date when the activities foreseen in the individual plan start?

The starting date of the intervention for YEI monitoring is the date when the participant begins activities within a YEI-funded operation. This may be some time after the initial registration date.

View PDF