ACC - Status - The Accounts for our programme is still in status 'Under Examination', is this normal?

It is normal that the status 'Under Examination' will remain during the early stages following the deadline for the Accounts, either until the Commission replies to the Member State with a Final Evaluation on the Accounts (Acceptance or Non-Acceptance), or unless the Commission requests technical corrections from the Member State (Returned for Correction (Immaterial or Clerical errors)).

Tags
accounts under examination
View PDF